APPEAL

This information is provided as a guide to assist you in the preparation to apply for an Appeal. It is also intended to explain the process by which the City analyzes and acts upon the application.

What is an Appeal

The Patterson City Code allows any interested person to apply to appeal certain actions of the Planning Director or Planning Commission within ten (10) business days from the date of the action. Actions by the City Council are final and no further administrative appeals are available.

Application Process

All appeals shall be submitted in writing, identifying the determination or action being appealed and specifically stating the basis or grounds of the appeal. Appeals shall be filed within ten (10) business days following the date of determination, accompanied by the filing fee established by City Council and submitted to the City Clerk. Notice of a public hearing for the appeal shall be provided pursuant to noticing requirements.

Additional information may be required by the Community Development Director during the review of the application.
